

Environment

Local 4304's Environment Committee works to educate and organize our members to help improve respect for the environment and sustainable development. Chemicals in our water supply and the high rates of cancer and birth defects are examples of links between the workplace and the outside community.