Re: 700 Strasburg Rd. Coffee Time Public Health infraction

Dear Kara,

I _____ entered a Coffee Time restaurant on, _____ 2010 at (NAME) (MONTH/DAY)
approximately _____. The access doors to the sanitary facilities were locked and required a key.
(TIME)

The Health Promotion and Protection Act, 1990, Part IV Section 68 (6) clearly states,

(6) Access doors to sanitary facilities and toilet cubicles shall not be locked or equipped with coin or token operated unlocking devices except that cubicles with toilets in excess of the minimum number of toilets required by the Ontario Building Code may be equipped with such locking devices. O. Reg. 586/99, s. 6.

I, as a citizen, a customer and a taxpayer am formally requesting that you enforce this act on my behalf for the benefit of public health. Please follow up with me regarding how this violation of the act was resolved.

Sincerely,
